Subject: Executive Leadership for the Government Executive Program

In November 2006, the State sponsored the kick off for the Leadership for the Government Executive Program offered through Sacramento State University. Responses from the current participants and their sponsors have been overwhelmingly positive.

Based on the tremendous demand for leadership training, we are announcing the second session of the Program which begins March 23. Applications are due March 7. We invite you and other state executives to support the program by enrolling in the March 23rd session.

Similar to the first session, the Program will provide a forum to facilitate and sustain government transformation.

- Scholars, guest speakers, experienced leaders and change management agents will share examples of best-practices and leadership lessons from their public and private sector experiences.
- Business and Information Technology leaders will explore current policy issues to address statewide program opportunities and challenges.

Updated information about the Program, its scholars, speakers, and course curriculum is available at http://www.cio.ca.gov/ITHR.html and http://www.cce.csus.edu/leadershipforgov. Information regarding the registration process and form required is available at http://www.cce.csus.edu/register/register.htm.

We encourage you and your staff to register for the second session of this program and ask that you share a copy of this letter with your administrative officers.

Sincerely,

Will Bush
