We encourage you to take advantage of the NCSA material by customizing and branding the products below in recognition of NCSAM:

- Customizable Posters: There is a special National Cyber Security Awareness Month poster that is customizable with a logo or a message to help promote local activities. Poster is available for download on the CD or visit - <http://www.staysafeonline.org/content/banners-posters-more> for more information.
- Wide Variety of Media Tools: Other information and resources include Web banners, brochures, buttons, and tip sheets for helping everyone build awareness programs to help spread the word about how computer users can protect themselves and our Internet infrastructure. Web banners are available for download on the CD or visit - <http://www.staysafeonline.org/content/banners-posters-more> for more information.
- Endorsement Forms: Organizations, companies, and government agencies can show their commitment to cybersecurity by endorsing National Cyber Security Awareness month through an online endorsement form. Endorsers can have their logo and web link on NCSA's website staysafeonline.org. The endorsement form is available for download on the CD or visit - <http://www.staysafeonline.org/content/endorse-ncsam> for more information.
- School Volunteer Program Templates and Curriculum: Reaching young people is critical and companies and individuals are encouraged to help young people stay safe online. NCSA's Cyber Security Awareness Volunteer Education (C-SAVE) program is designed to help schools fill the gap in cybersecurity education. Presentations are available for grades K-2, 3-5, and 6-12 and focus on educating young people about cybersecurity and online safety issues. C-SAVE Fact Sheet is available for download on the CD or visit - <http://www.staysafeonline.org/content/c-save> for more information.
